SELF TAUGHT DEVELOPER (2020 - Present)

YOUTUBE | UDEMY

I ignited my passion for web and app development through self-directed learning. Utilizing online resources like YouTube tutorials and in-depth Udemy courses, I embarked on a journey of acquiring the necessary skills. This involved diligently following structured courses, actively participating in online tutorials, and relentlessly practicing the concepts to solidify my understanding. Through this independent approach, I've gained a comprehensive skillset to tackle web and app development challenges.

SELF TAUGHT DESIGNER (2010 - Present)

YOUTUBE

Fueled by a thirst for creative expression, I embarked on a self-directed journey to master the digital arts. Through a combination of exploration and dedication, I honed my skills in 3D modeling, animation (both 2D and 3D), VFX, photo manipulation, photography, videography, and even audio mixing and mastering. Leveraging online resources and diving deep into software like Adobe Creative Cloud and Autodesk Suite, I've cultivated a versatile skillset that allows me to bring imaginative concepts to life.
